To Whom it may concern.

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to sincerely apologize for my recent actions in entering the Kanab City Airport Terminal. I deeply regret any inconvenience or concerns it may have caused.

Upon reflection, I realize that I should have reached out to another employee after I was asked by a City employee to enter the building. Please know that this was an oversight on my part and not a deliberate disregard for any rules or regulations, nor disrespect to the City.

Once again, I apologize for any disruption or concern my actions may have caused. My motivation was solely to help a dying friend resolve his affairs, not to cause harm or to be a detriment to the City. Nonetheless, I should have pursued this through official channels, and in not doing so, I exercised poor judgment. Please accept my apologies for this lapse. I hope we can move forward with mutual respect and professionalism.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
